

Guests are accommodated on board Patricia in six double-bedded cabins. Each cabin is individually designed with its own unique character. All have comfortable seating areas and a television/VCR combination, offering terrestrial and satellite channels with a selection of videos available onboard; computer/e-mail links are also available. In addition guests will find a mini bar, tea and coffee making facilities, trouser press and hairdryer in their cabin.

En-suite bathrooms in our guest accommodation have recently been upgraded; each equipped to the highest standard with bath and thermostatically controlled shower over the bath complemented by a selection of Molton Brown toiletries.

Stateroom One

This splendidly furnished double cabin is generously proportioned with three picture windows overlooking the starboard side boat deck. Dark wood furniture is beautifully complemented by cream carpeting. Guests will find a large writing desk for their use and a relaxing seating area, comprising of a two-seater settee, single armchair and table.

Stateroom Two

This luxurious spacious double cabin is beautifully furnished with lightwood furniture contrasting dramatically with deep blue carpeting. Guests will find a light and airy seating area with double settee, armchair and table, in addition to a writing desk for their use. Three picture windows overlook the port side boat deck.

Luxury Cabin Four

A spacious port side cabin with a picture window, elegantly furnished in floral. This cabin has a small writing desk, with two chairs and a comfortable two-seater settee.

Executive Cabin Three

Whilst smaller than the other cabins, this starboard side cabin is tastefully furnished in blue and cream, with cherry wood furniture including a writing bureau. The cabin also benefits from a picture window, a comfortable two-seater settee and small occasional table.

Executive Cabin Five

A similar size to cabin three, this starboard side cabin with picture window, is tastefully furnished in dark red and cream. Cherry wood furniture including a writing desk complements the comfortable dark red leather two-seater settee.

Executive Cabin Six

Slightly larger than the other executive cabins, this port side cabin is elegantly furnished in green and cream with a writing desk, comfortable two-seater settee and a picture window.
