SATURDAY		SPLIT

The (B) and (L) denote Breakfast and Lunch.

SATURDAY: Split ► Rogoznica or Primosten (L)

A few T-shirts and a bathing suit is all you need to spend a full week of island hopping on the Adriatic Sea. Relax and let the Captain and his crew, especially the cook, spoil you. Swim, snorkel, sunbathe, and explore the underworld of the Adriatic Sea during the day -- later in the afternoon and evening, discover the richly diverse historical and geographical landmarks.

We depart from Split harbor and have lunch en route followed by an afternoon swim in a quiet bay. Overnight in Rogoznica or Primošten, small towns with restaurants offering good food, wine too.

SUNDAY: Rogoznica/Primosten ► Šibenik ► Krka Waterfalls (Zlarin) (B,L)

Early departure for Šibenik. Unlike many other Adriatic cities, Šibenik was not founded by ancient Romans, but was established in the 10th century under the Croatian King Petar Kresimir IV, who built a strong maritime fleet that ruled the Adriatic for a time. St. James's Cathedral, a unique example of church architecture built in stone and no other structural materials should be the first on your sightseeing list. The cathedral is a UNESCO world cultural heritage site (photo above). And the Castle above the town is worth visiting for itself, but it also offers a wonderful view of the city and Kornati IIs.

SUNDAY: continued

In the afternoon, you'll enjoy your lunch on the deck of your coastal cruiser while she sails through the Krka Canyon to Skradin Town.

From Skradin you'll be able to enter the Krka National Park and walk and enjoy watching the waterfalls and rich flora and fauna. We stay overnight here, if we can keep the berth, if not, we'll sail to Zlarin, another small port at the Island of Zlarin just outside of Šibenik Bay.

Monday: Krka W'falls ► Kornati ► Sali (B,L)

"On the last day of Creation, God desired to crown his work and thus created the Kornati Islands out of tears, stars and breath", wrote Irish writer George Bernard Shaw. The beautiful nature, landscape, big and small islands (the old folk saying goes: One island for every day of the year) and the magnificent sea, all make the Kornati Islands a unique paradise. The area stretches between the islands of Dugi Otok and Pasman on the northwest to Zirje and Zlarin on the southeast. You'll sail today most of the length and make stops in the coves along for a swim and dock at Sali on Dugi Otok (Long Island) for the night.

TUESDAY: Sali ► Zadar (B,L)

Another day of sailing through the Kornati Islands, with swim breaks until we reach Zadar in the afternoon. In the centuries past the Capital of Dalmatia, holds the oldest university in Croatia. Rich historical heritage is visible at every step: the Roman Forum, from the 1st century, basilica St. Donat, from the 9th century, and old city walls. The attractions are also the newly opened Museum of Ancient Glass, as well as the famous Sea Organ and Greeting to the Sun, both located on the city's waterfront. Overnight in Zadar.

WEDNESDAY: Zadar ► Vodice (B,L)

Cruising back south along the Dalmatian coast, interrupted only by a refreshing swimming break in one of the peaceful bays. After lunch we head for the popular and always lively resort of Vodice, where we spend the night.

Walk along the beautiful beaches of this typical Dalmatian town, or simply sit at one of many restaurant terraces and savor the scenery.

THURSDAY: Vodice ► Trogir (B,L)

Depart after breakfast with a swimming stop in one of the bays. After lunch we visit the old Dalmatian town of Trogir. Trogir is sometimes referred to as Miniature Venice or a Floating Museum Town - as it has some masterful architecture. Greek relief from 4th century was found here. We stay here for the night.

FRIDAY: Trogir ► Split (B,L)

Sailing back along the Split Riviera. Stop in a bay of the Čiovo Island (connected to Trogir by a bridge) for another swim and continue for early afternoon arrival at Split, where we may join one of guided tours. Split is a city under UNESCO protection with its historical and cultural monuments -- of special interest is the Diocletian Palace. Overnight alongside in Split's harbor.

SATURDAY: Split departure (B)

Early breakfast after which it is time to say goodbye to the crew and all your new friends.

Reservations can be made by completing a Registration Form and providing a 25% deposit.
